Brother Michael J. McGinniss, F.S.C., Unanimously Elected to Second Term as President of La Salle University

Brother Michael J. McGinniss, F.S.C., was unanimously elected to a second five-year term as President of La Salle University by the school's Board of Trustees. Br. Michael, a 1970 graduate of the University, became the 28th President of La Salle on July 1, 1999.

"I'm very proud of what we've accomplished in the past five years, and very excited about meeting the challenges that face us," says Br. Michael. "On a personal note, it's great to see so many wonderful things happening at my alma mater." His second term will begin on July 1, 2004.

"The Board of Trustees displayed an overwhelming show of support for Br. Michael's leadership," said James Lynch, Chair of La Salle's Board of Trustees. "After a formal review process that concluded with a remarkable consensus, the Committee on Trusteeship strongly recommended reelecting Br. Michael, and the entire Board of Trustees voted unanimously to reelect him to another term. We feel very confident that Br. Michael is providing the direction the University needs."

During Br. Michael's first term, the University accomplished several important achievements to position itself for the future.

Since 1998, the year before Br. Michael became president, enrollment at the University has increased 11 percent. Full-time undergraduate enrollment is up 10 percent, and graduate enrollment has increased 24 percent. To accommodate the increased undergraduate population, the University is constructing a residence hall and dining facility to be ready by the summer of 2005.

Giving to the University has also increased dramatically during Br. Michael's tenure as President. Total gifts and grants made annually to the University from fiscal year 1999 to the end of fiscal year 2003 grew 33 percent with unrestricted annual giving growing by 23.4 percent. In addition, during that time, 12 alumni clubs or chapters have either been revived or launched.

New, innovative programs, such as Integrated Science, Business, and Technology; Digital Arts and Multimedia Design; and Information Technology were established, along with a program in Nutrition and a master's degree in Speech-Language-Hearing Science. A master's degree in history is currently being developed. Also, an undergraduate core curriculum was introduced across the University, fostering an interdisciplinary approach to learning and problem solving.

Under Br. Michael's direction, a strategic plan was developed and continues to be implemented. The plan focuses on five themes: enhancing the intellectual and spiritual life of the University, communicating La Salle's distinct identity, and investing in the future, as well as enhancing the quality of life in the University's neighborhood and strengthening partnerships with alumni.

Br. Michael, 56, grew up near the University. When first named President, he remarked that, as a boy, he and his aunt would often ride a trolley past La Salle's College Hall at 20th Street and Olney Avenue. "She'd tell me that some day I would go to school in that building," he recalled. "I can't help but wonder what she would say about my being President if she were alive today."

He joined the Christian Brothers in 1965 and was graduated maxima cum laude from La Salle in 1970 with a degree in English. He obtained his master's and Ph.D. in theology from the University of Notre Dame.

His first teaching assignment was as at South Hills Catholic High School in Pittsburgh, where he taught English and religion. He returned to La Salle as a visiting instructor in the Graduate Religion program in 1978. Br. Michael has also taught at Washington Theological Union and Loyola University's Summer Institute of Pastoral Studies.

In 1984, he joined the faculty at La Salle on a full-time basis, reaching the rank of full professor in 1993. Recognized by the De La Salle Christian Brothers for his qualities as a leader, he attended La session internationale des études lasalliennes (a program of study of Lasallian spirituality) in Rome. He eventually became Chair of La Salle's Religion Department and in 1992 he received the Lindback Distinguished Teaching Award.

He became President of Christian Brothers University in Memphis, Tenn., in 1994. During his tenure, undergraduate enrollment and retention rates increased; a master's degree in education was established, and new facilities were constructed, among other accomplishments.

He serves on the boards of the Association of Independent Colleges and Universities of Pennsylvania, the Greater Philadelphia Urban Affairs Coalition, the Greater Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce, and the Community Development Advisory Board of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia, and is a member of the World Affairs Council.

He has published articles in scholarly journals on many topics, written chapters in religious books and edited six volumes of the Christian Brothers' Spirituality Seminar Series. He has lectured to academic and professional groups on issues related to spirituality, pastoral care, and theology. His professional memberships include Catholic Theological Society of America, American Academy of Religion, and College Theology Society.

Office of the President

To: La Salle Community

From: Michael J. McGinniss, F.S.C.

Date: March 12, 2004

Brother Michael

Next week is La Salle's 141st Anniversary. The Charter was signed on March 20, 1863 so each year we celebrate the University's birthday near that date. As part of the Charter Celebration we reaffirm the University's mission and values. Some of the activities included in the Charter Celebration remind us of who we are and what our goals should be. Both the Faculty Development Workshop and the In-Class Presentation have been designed with this in mind.

Please come and celebrate our Charter on Thursday, March 18th at the Liturgy (1:00 p.m. in the Chapel) and dinner (4:00 to 7:30 pm in the La Salle Union Ballroom). All offices will close at 4:00 p.m. so that the entire community can participate. We will have the usual fine foods from which you can choose and members of the community, including myself, will serve as guest chefs.

Also, please wear La Salle colors that day in honor of the University!

To: The Campus Community

While we have made every effort to minimize the number of parking spaces that have been removed from service, there is a reduction in the availability of parking spaces in the south campus parking lots due to the construction of the new residence/dining facility.

Payment of the University parking fee authorizes the purchaser to use available permit parking spaces but does not guarantee a space. There continues to be more than adequate parking spaces available at the Good Shepherd lot, free of charge. Sometimes this lot contains the only space available and is causing some people who purchased parking permits to express dissatisfaction when they must now park in a free lot.

We recognize that there are fewer spaces available than when many individuals purchased their parking permits and, for that reason, we want to provide current permit holders the opportunity to reconsider whether they want a permit. If under the current circumstances you would rather not retain your parking permit, we will offer a refund to you based on the below scale. To take advantage of this offer, please return your parking permit to the Parking Office in Security Headquarters by no later than March 31, 2004 and a refund will be issued. No refunds will be offered past this date.

Permit Type	Amount of Reimbursement
Student
Resident	$30
Commuter	$20
Part-time	$15
Faculty and staff

Thank you for your continued understanding of the challenges we are trying to work through during this period of construction.

Sincerely,

David C. Fleming
Vice President for Business Affairs

News Bytes— New Portal Channel to Focus on Lasallian Accomplishments!

Please make submissions at www.lasalle.edu/mynews

As you are aware, La Salle University is an extremely dynamic environment.

La Salle News Bytes is a new channel that has been developed within mylasalle to promote this vitality to prospective students, faculty, students, alumni and the campus community.

mylasalle is interested in newsworthy information that involves students, faculty, alumni, departments or other university constituents that can

- (1) promote La Salle University
- (2) inform our campus community.

Awards, published books, honors, and unique program items that feature Lasallian accomplishments will be featured in La Salle

News Bytes.

Please make as many newsworthy submissions as you like.

Appropriate items will be cycled through La Salle News Bytes (with links to a corresponding web page) in a timely manner so as to effectively highlight the many accomplishments that take place at this University.

Thank you in advance for informing mylasalle and ultimately the campus community.

Please make submissions at www.lasalle.edu/mynews

"In the Works" - Portal Projects in Progress

As with any web application tool, development and maintenance is an on-going project.

The primary goal of all involved is to continue to build upon the foundation of mylasalle in a manner that promotes dynamic content and functionality within the portal.

mylasalle projects "in the works" :

- Enhancement of the Prospect Portal
- Develop an Alumni Portal
- Creation of a user-friendly tutorial for mylasalle and update of mylasalle FAQ
- Develop dynamic forms for ease of use and for the streamlining processes/applications.
- Develop a process/application for Campus News to be viewed through the portal.
- Evaluation and redesign of mylasalle login page.
- Identify areas where services can be streamlined and efficiently applied in an intranet environment.
- Recruitment of Lasallians for interaction in the prospect portal.
- Identifying student cyber ambassadors for mylasalle.
- Content Development that focuses on the accomplishments of the community and the unique aspects of La Salle.
- Assessing the use of RSS Channels
- Creation of a mylasalle web log for tech updates

Using RSS Channels?

Are you using RSS Channels in mylasalle? If you are—great! We'd like to know which ones you have pulled into your mylasalle tab! (e-mail jsell@lasalle.edu)

If you are not certain about what a RSS channel is, you are not alone. In fact, even the experts don't agree about what the letters RSS mean.

Some say it stands for "Really Simple Syndication" others say "Rich Site Summary."

Regardless of what the letters stand for, RSS channels are extremely useful in providing you with up-to-date data on information that may be of interest or importance to you.

A nice function of the mylasalle portal is that you can select RSS news feeds and pull them into your mylasalle tab.

It's like having your own news service that continually provides you with timely updates on information that is important to you.

My Headlines is an example of a news feed that constantly updates itself to provide you with the latest news in world events, sports and entertainment.

However, there are others that are more topic specific. You can view all of the RSS channels as well as the designed La Salle channels by going into the mylasalle tab and clicking on preferences, and then new channel under one of the columns.

You will then be given the option of selecting by category.

If YOU NEED ASSISTANCE,
PLEASE CALL 215-991-3615.

Putting mylasalle to work for you...

- Post Campus-wide Announcements
- Post Personal Announcements

It's a great way to get the word out to your students and the campus community regarding programs, events, activities and other information that can be useful for prospective students, students, faculty and staff.

You can also target messages based on student majors or particular segments of the campus population.

How-To:

1. Login to mylasalle
2. Click on the Using mylasalle Tab.
3. Choose your audience from the list of selections.
4. Complete form and click submit.
5. Done!

Members of FOCUS are requesting $750.00 for the COOL (Campus Outreach Opportunity League) Conference in Philadelphia, PA to be held March 12-14, 2004.

MOTION: Mark Badstubner to allot $750.00 for this program.
SECOND: Jason Canady
VOTE: In favor: 6 Opposed: 0 Abstain: 1

Board Business VIII/ Lasallian Arts Lovers Alliance

Members of the Lasallian Arts Lovers Alliance appealed a decision the board made at an earlier meeting, and are requesting $1500.00 for spring semester programs.

No motion for funding was made and the proposal was not funded.

The Board cited the following:

1. The board stands by its original decision
2. They allotted some money and would like to see how this new group does with their initial programs.
3. The group should also monitor attendance at the events funded. This might help the board with future decisions.
4. The Board also feels the group could search for alternative funding (e.g.: if speaker is focused on diversity, are there offices/student organizations able to co-sponsor?)
5. Is there a balance of the arts: music, arts, etc., current examples seem to be from literature field only.

HEALTH ADVISORY COMMITTEE MINUTES

February 20, 2004

Present: Co-chair: Lane Neubauer; Members: Anne Bullard, Candace Cannon, Kristal Hankinson, Michelle Hanson, Stefania Nolano, Rejeanne Richard, Kevin Riley, Sr. Eileen McGowan, Scott Tajirian, Mary Ellen Wydan

Absent: Co-chair: Dina Oleksiak; Members: Marie Cantwell, Earl Goldberg, Danielle Landwehr

Guest: Mark Dorsey - Director of Safety and Security; Lauren Eisele - Student Representative from the Student Publicity Club

I. University Smoking Policy Change

- a. The Health Advisory Committee's recommendation for all classroom, office and administrative buildings to become smoke-free has been approved by the President although a definite date still needs to be announced.
- b. Student residences will transition over the next three years to become smoke free starting with the residence halls (Fall 2004), apartment complexes (Fall 2005) and finally, townhouses (Fall 2006).
- c. The Health Advisory Committee made the following suggestions in helping La Salle University transition to a smoke free campus:
 - i. Outdoor smoking areas that are away from the entrances of buildings need to be delineated to avoid smokers congregating around entrances to buildings. These designated smoking areas should ideally include some type of covering and ashtrays.
 - ii. Information about strategies and support groups for smoking cessation should be made available. The members of the Health Advisory Committee will identify on and off campus resources as well as put together a list of strategies for stopping smoking and distribute this information through the portal and Campus News.

II. Update on Olney Front Door

- a. The automated front door to Olney Classroom Building is working now.
- b. It was suggested that Physical Plant be approached about installing an automated door at the Art Museum entrance in Olney Hall as this is the entrance closest to the elevator and therefore is likely utilized by someone needing handicap accessibility.

III. Programs for National Eating Disorder Awareness week were announced.

- a. Professional speaker addressing cultural issues impacting body image co-sponsored by the PEER Educators, Health Services and Athletics will be offered as well as programs on healthy living and a 'friends, family, survivor' speak-out sponsored by PEER Educators. A free Eating Disorder self screening has been linked onto La Salle University's web page with info about support resources.
- b. Suggestion was made that the Health Advisory Committee set goals for next year addressing weight, exercise and nutrition for the La Salle University community.

IV. Health Tip for March will address relaxation tips involving deep breathing. This will go on the Portal, in Campus News, and in the Collegian.

V. Health Fair duties and responsibilities were identified. A definite cooperative approach was seen as all jobs and time slots were immediately filled in!

VI. Blood Drive

- a. The representative from the American Red Cross was ill so could not attend the meeting
- b. The Student Publicity committee is once again putting their support behind the blood drive and will be designing a publicity campaign to encourage La Salle University members to donate.
- c. Since several potential donors were turned away in the Fall due to low iron, information about increasing one's iron will be included in the publicity.
- d. Blood Drive recruitment will kick off at the Health Fair.

VII. Mark Dorsey was introduced to the HAC committee; discussion ensued as to how the HAC committee and the Safety and Security Committee could collaborate.

- a. Questions were asked about training for the Automated External Defibrillators. Mr. Dorsey informed the committee that he is bringing in a 6 hour training program through the Christian Brothers' Insurance for his officers which will focus on CPR and other first responder skills.
- b. Discussion as to whether others in the Community could participate in this training and if so, who? Mr. Dorsey will look into this.
- c. Question was asked if there is a video that addresses AED procedures and if so can it be played during the Health Fair? The committee and Mr. Dorsey will look into this.

VIII. Next Meeting is scheduled for March 19th at 2 p.m. in the Counseling Center conference room.

Respectfully submitted by Lane B. Neubauer Ph.D.

AAUP

American Association of University Professors

Academic Freedom for a Free Society

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK FROM THE LA SALLE AAUP

“[J]ust as research is evaluated by peer review, so teaching [should] be. Popularity among students is a positive sign for a teacher, just as having a book on the best-seller list is a positive sign for a researcher, but neither accomplishment ensures academic quality. We care enough about research to undertake an elaborate review of a professor’s scholarship; we ought to care enough about teaching to undertake an equally elaborate review of a professor’s work in the classroom. Such a review should involve input from departmental colleagues who visit the professor’s classes and analyze syllabi, examinations, and test papers to assess teaching performance. The more an institution is concerned about teaching, the more effort will be made to evaluate it.”

Presents

The 25th Annual Grimes Lecture

Thursday, March 25, 2004

6:00-7:30 PM—Alumni, Student, and Faculty Reception and Awarding of the John P. Dondero Award in the Music Room, Student Union. This year our recipient is Dr. John Dignam, a 1980 graduate who is now Chief of the Office of Internal Affairs at the Federal Bureau of Prisons. Dr. Dignam received his M.A. and Ph.D. in Clinical Psychology from Arizona State University, and has worked in a number of clinical, correctional, and other law enforcement settings.

7:30-9:00 PM—Lecture and Discussion in the Dan Rodden Theater, Student Union

Lila R. Gleitman, Ph.D.

Does the Language We Speak Affect the Way We Think?

Lila R. Gleitman is Steven and Marcia Roth Professor of Psychology and Linguistics at the University of Pennsylvania. She received her doctoral degree in linguistics from the University of Pennsylvania with Z. G. Harris as her advisor and Henry Hoenigswald as her mentor. Last November, the American Psychological Association recognized Dr. Gleitman's contributions to Psychology by presenting her with the Award for Distinguished Scientific Contributions, citing her "groundbreaking program of research that has come to define the field of language learning."

This year's Grimes Lecture is supported by the Grimes Fund and the Concert and Lecture Series.

BREATHE IN

FOR RELAXATION

Deep breathing is one of the simplest yet most effective ways to manage stress. By taking in more oxygen, you allow your heart rate to slow down, which produces a sense of relaxation.

Another benefit of deep breathing is that it can be done anytime, anywhere and requires no equipment.
